Profile: My business is Business Consulting & Project Management and Personal Business Consulting.

My career has revolved around Business Consulting managing multiple projects simultaneously for small, medium & enterprise size businesses and Personal Business Consulting for individuals and families. I am a multi-dimensional analytical thinker with the ability to overcome obstacles, create advantages, negotiate successfully, win loyalties, and thrive under pressure.

Skills: Project Management, Business Analysis, finance, negotiations, communications and customer service are hallmarks of my skill set. I consistently bring projects in "on or under" budget and always on time. I possess the consistent ability to take on multiple projects with efficiency and success.
